My dear Mr. Jackson:

I appreciate your letter of April 17 concerning a future vacancy in your Department of English.

I am on permanent tenure at Oakwood and at present am not contemplating leaving the school. Should I do so, however, I shall be glad to consider your offer.

Dear Dr. Dykes:

After leaving Cunningham Hall on Thursday afternoon, I have heard many laudatory comments about your very fine address.

No Joseph A. Tucker Lecturer has ever met with a more enthusiastic reception than yours. Students and faculty members present all found in it a challenge to more vigorous effort in preparing to meet the inevitable problems that the days bring. And certainly all of us benefited from your penetrating analysis of the opportunities to be found in "Diadems and Fagots".

The longer I think about your words, the more I appreciate their significance.

Dear Dr. Dykes:

Again it is camp meeting time and we are feverishly making plans and anticipating the best camp meeting that we have ever held at Oakwood.

You have always been an inspiration and a blessing to our camp meeting, musically speaking, so we are asking you to assume the responsibility as in years past of directing the camp choir. This automatically places you on the music committee of which Brother J. P. Willis is chairman. Elder E. E. Cleveland will be speaking evangelistically in the evening meetings and he will be happy to know that you have charge of the choir.

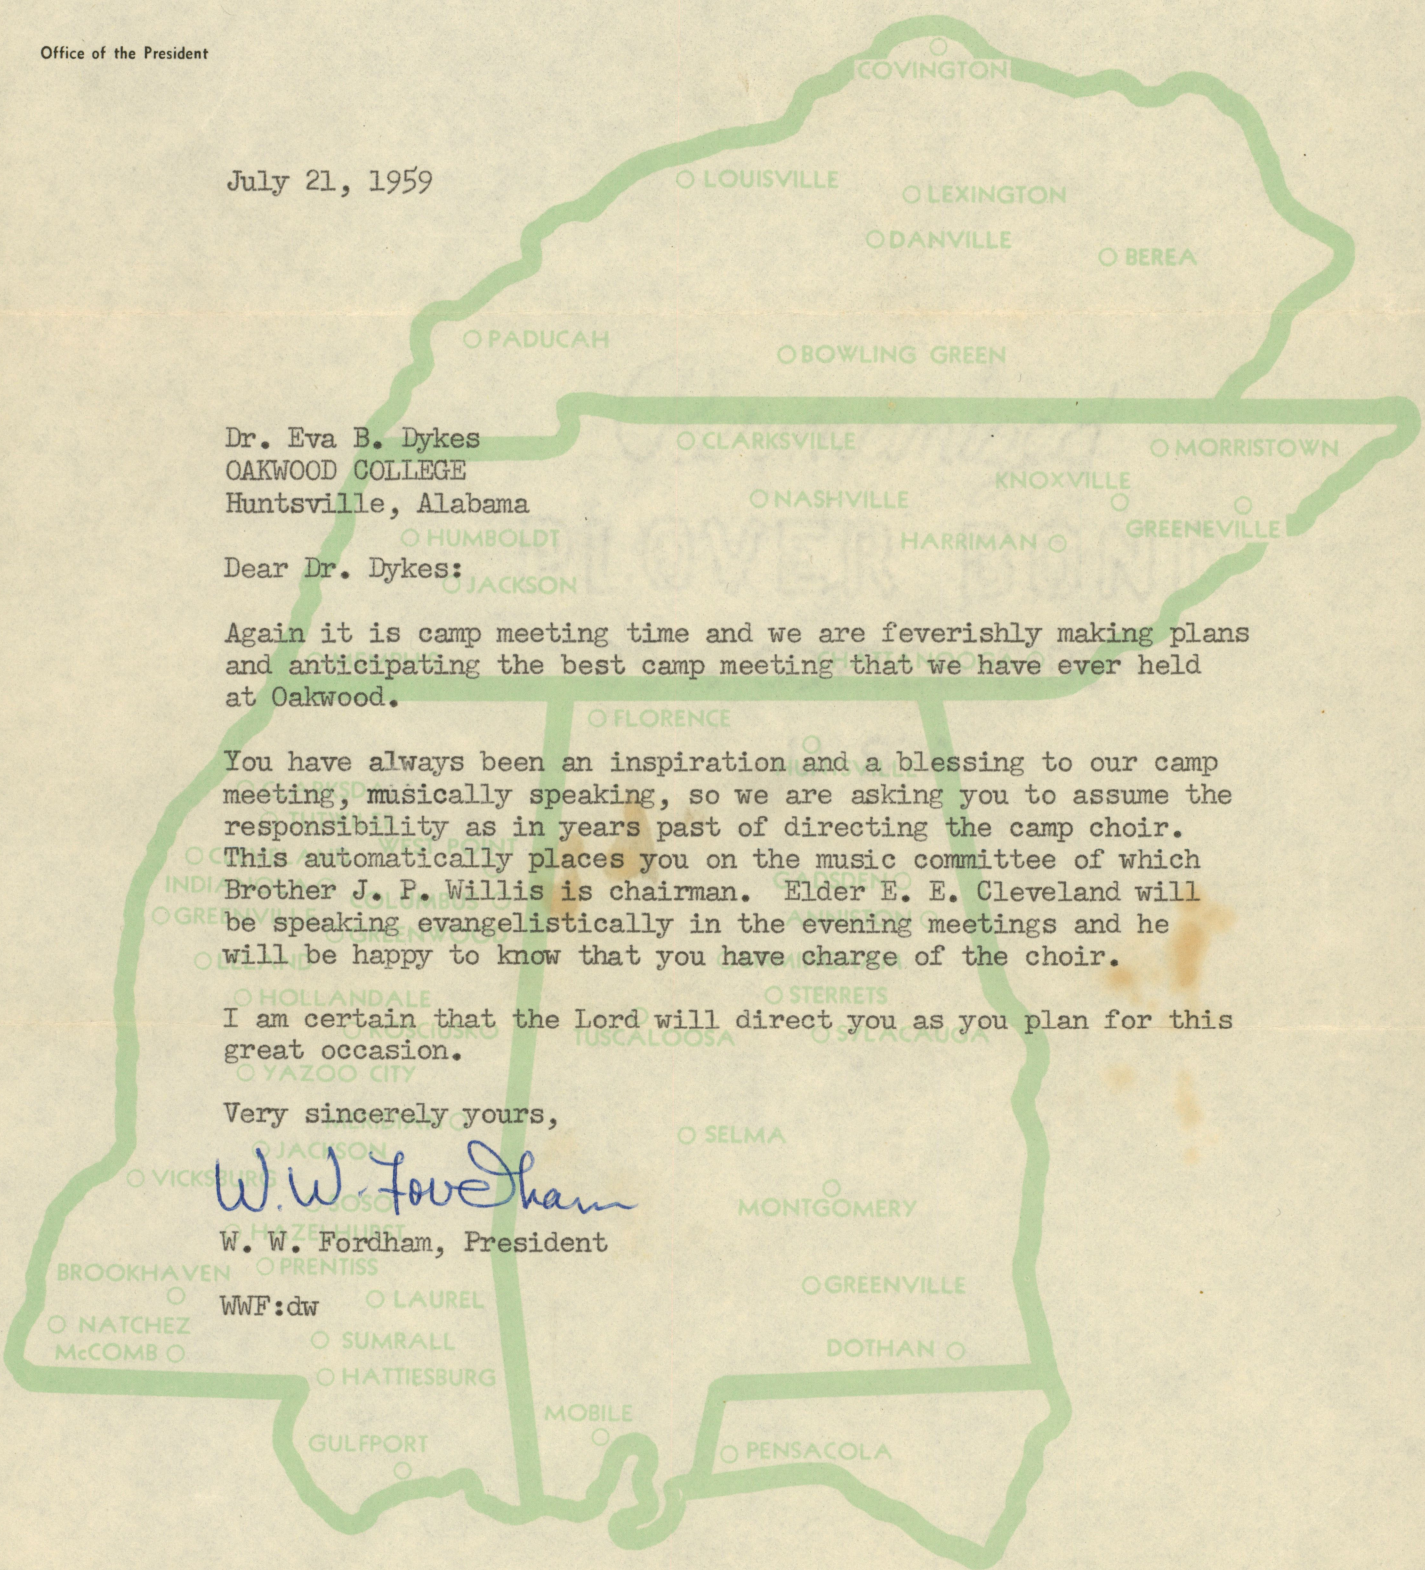

I am certain that the Lord will direct you as you plan for this great occasion.

Dear Dr. Dykes:

It is only natural for me to muse upon the happenings at the General Conference as I sit again in the quietness of the home office.

Oddly enough I reviewed our Sabbath School lesson of that famous last Sabbath, and I thrilled again as I remembered the wonderful contribution you made to the success of the lesson. I have heard nothing but praises for the way the lesson was conducted, and the magnificent contribution that each participant made. So I just felt to thank you again in writing for the noble way you presented your portion of the lesson study. If I had it to do again, I believe I would use the same persons in the same way.

Blessings upon you and yours as you continue to serve the Master in your important part of His great vineyard.

Dear Doctor Dykes:

It was so pleasant seeing you at the ceremony of dedication of the Eva B. Dykes Library. You have my sincere congratulations for that richly deserved honor and for receiving the Citation for Excellence.

Shortly after the service of tribute at the Dupont Church (held several years ago), I believe that I sent a copy of my remarks to Mrs. Murphy. As promised when we met at Oakwood on April 22, I am enclosing a copy for you.

Do I understand that you have elected to continue to live at Oakwood? That's very welcome news. May every blessing be yours in the years ahead!

Dear Dr. Dykes:

It was a thrilling experience for us to have you with us on Charter Day. Your very fitting and beautiful letter, read by Mrs. Allen, was gladly received by those who were present at the Charter Day Dinner.

You feel, I know, in what warm esteem you are held by the members of the faculty and by the trustees and graduates of Howard University.

I thank you for sending me the Figco and the Vitamin B powder, with its delicious bacon taste. Several times already I have had a cup of the coffee and I have enjoyed it. It was a very nice thing for you to take time out of your very few moments at home, to send these to me.

Your letter about Oakwood College makes me wish to come down some day to see it. This I shall certainly do, and I hope to be able to bring Mrs. Johnson with me.

Dear Miss Dykes:

We are very sorry that we have no place in our school for your niece, Eva M. Simms. Our classes for this fall are made up, and we have a long waiting list of students to fill any possible vacancies.

We find ourselves in position that makes it impossible for us to accept colored students. The hospitals with which we must affiliate for communicable diseases nursing and pediatrics nursing will not accept colored students. Therefore it is not possible for our school to graduate with full standing students who cannot complete affiliation work.

I understand that the White Memorial School of Nursing, 312 North Boyle Avenue, Los Angeles, California, can arrange an affiliation with the County Hospital in Los Angeles for colored students to receive work that their school is not able to give, and can thus graduate colored students.

A plan for enrolling colored students in a school of nursing has also been arranged by the General Conference. You can learn the details of this plan if you write to Miss D. Lois Burnett, Medical Department, General Conference of S. D. A., Takoma Park, Washington, D. C.

We are really very sympathetic with the needs of the colored students, and would be very happy to accept them if it were possible for us to give them full work and graduate them.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Librarian,

The staff of the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center was saddened to hear of the death of Dr. Eva B. Dykes. As you may know, in 1977 Dr. Dykes designated MSRC as the repository for her papers. We completed processing the papers this past summer and forwarded an index to Dr. Dykes in September 1986. Enclosed is a copy of the index for the library.

Also enclosed is a number of duplicate items (programs, news articles, poems) from the papers that may be useful for the Oakwood College Library. Included is a xerox copy of the obituary of Dr. Dykes from the Washington Afro-American. We would be grateful if you would send Moorland-Spingarn copies of any other obituaries and memorial programs that you may have. And if you have a collection on Dr. Dykes we would be interested to know, so that we may refer researchers to your collection.

Thank you for any assistance you may provide.

Sincerely,

My Dear Miss Dykes:-

I am returning to you the two letters you so kindly sent to me while at Columbus. I am sure you must feel very happy, for I must confess that I believe that your visit to the officials there was the one big thing that helped us get what we did get. And I am with you in the fight to keep right on until we get a first class Sanitarium in the North for the training of nurses.

You may count on me always as one that will do all within my power to assist you in this good work. I hope you will keep up the fight. I am kept very busy here with the Montclair company, as Miss Curtwright has returned to Berrien Springs, I have the entire work to carry alone. That is, Newark, Jersey City, Englewood and Montclair. I need a good Bible worker, and cannot find one. Is there a good Bible worker in the 1700 block on Eighth Street, in your city who would like the position?

Hoping this finds you well and of good courage in the Lord, I am,
Yours in the Master's service,

Marion Campbell.

I am writing to extend to you my sincere congratulations upon your success in winning from Radcliff College your Ph. D. Considered from any angle this is a worthy accomplishment. No other colored woman in America has won yet such a distinction; very few men of color have attained to such honor; in fact, few are the persons who enter the ranks of scholars.
