It was back in my salad days when I was green and a freshman student here at Oakwood College that the life of Dr. Eva Dykes touched mine as I worked for her in the capacity of STUDENT READER to the English Department.

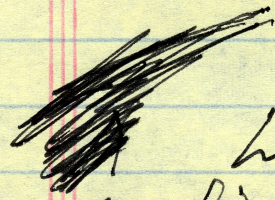

Grading papers, typing letters, making carrot juice, and occasionally being challenged & invited to ~~PROOF-READ~~ ~~her~~ her personal articles for publication -- I soon became ~~one of the~~ (unworthily) one whom she included among her "sons".

-- She even called me (inadvertently) "Milton" or "Noyes" about a million times.

I must believe that she saw something in "Newyn" worth ~~the~~ cultivating, and it has been my blessing to be a part of ^{her} life during her final days. 1

Perhaps she will never be characterized any better than by these words of Robert Frost which she often quoted to me even during her retirement:

"The woods are lovely, dark, & deep;
And I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep."

Little or not at all did she or I realize that the General Conf. of SDA's would telephone ^{us} ~~this year~~ (of all years) and request an ARTICLE about her

for the NOV/D FLEND

to know that HER PROMISES HAVE BEEN KEPT in YOU, ⁱⁿ Me, and in Ahh whom she touched!

*Copies of the General Conf. article published this fall are in the Church VESTIBULE on a table for you who may be interested after the PROCESSIONAL.
