LIBRARY CARD

Your Oakwood University I.D. card is your library card.

WEBSITE

The library website www.oakwood.edu/library is an important place for detailed information about library services and collections. The website provides access to the library catalog, periodical databases, and other useful electronic resources.

LIBRARY CATALOG

The catalog lists books, e-books & media owned by the Eva B. Dykes Library.

INTERLIBRARY LOANS

Books and articles not available at the Eva B. Dykes Library may be borrowed from other libraries. To place a request, complete the online form or contact 256-726-7248.

BORROWING SERVICES

Borrow and return library materials, pay fines, and pick up books from Interlibrary Loan at the Circulation Desk on the main floor.

STUDY ROOMS

There are 17 group study rooms, one conference room, 5 study carrels, and a classroom, available for 3-hour reservations. Make reservations on the library's website.

REFERENCE SERVICES

Librarians provide assistance with all types of information questions, in person and online. Online chat and text messaging to librarians are available via the Ask Us tab on the library website.

CONSULTATIONS

Individuals may schedule appointments with reference librarians when additional time is needed for research.

ELECTRONIC RESOURCES

The library offers onsite and off-campus access to several scholarly databases that support a cross-section of academic disciplines. Many of these databases provide full-text articles.

MEDIA RESOURCES

We house and provide access to a myriad of audio-visual materials and equipment. Listening and viewing facilities are available for in-library use of materials. Laptops, cameras, LCD projectors, tablets and e-book readers are available for checkout.

LIBGUIDES

LibGuides are subject guides, information guides, course guides, and research help. A listing of LibGuides can be found online: <http://libguides.oakwood.edu>

INSTRUCTION

Information literacy instruction is provided in collaboration with classroom faculty and through scheduled workshops.

ARCHIVES & MUSEUM

This is a unique collection of artifacts, documents, manuscripts, and historical records about the history of Oakwood University, and black Seventh-day Adventists.

ANNA KNIGHT WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP CENTER

The Anna Knight Women's Leadership Center chronicles the life and legacy of Anna Knight, the first African-American missionary to India.

ELLEN G. WHITE BRANCH OFFICE

The office promotes an accurate understanding of the life and work of Oakwood founder, Ellen G. White and God's prophetic gift to the world, as revealed in Scripture.

COPY EXPRESS

Full-featured copy and print services are available for students and guests.

COMPUTERS

Several multipurpose work stations are available on the main floor and the upper level. A larger computer lab is located on the lower level.
