

English 302-4

- F 18. "The Red Badge of Courage" is a war story by an author who had experienced much war.
- F 19. "The Open Boat" relates the experience of five men from the Sunk Steamer COMMODORE.
- T 20. "War is Kind" is a poem in which the poem addresses three persons: a maiden, a babe, and a mother.
- X_F 21. "Maggie: A Girl of the Streets" is the voice of the slums.
- F 22. Maggie was a former school teacher.
- T 23. The hero of "The Red Badge of Courage" was Henry Flemming.
- F 24. He was courageous from the beginning of the battle to the end.

(more

100
76

CHRIS. CARTWRIGHT. KKK

FINAL EXAMINATION WORLD LITERATURE
PART I TRUE AND FALSE

Print the letters like this T and F.
Your answers will be disregarded if you disobey these directions.

- F 1. The word "Bible" comes from a Greek word meaning "library."
- F 2. Joseph, betrothed to Mary, was a suspicious man inclined to think the worst.
- ~~F~~ 3. The Immaculate Conception is a doctrine believed by Adventists.
- T 4. "Emanuel" means "God with us."
- T 5. "Jesus" means "Saviour."
- F 6. The Wise Men went to Bethlehem first instead of to Jerusalem.
- F 7. Herod was guilty of genocide.
- X T 8. In the expression "Out of Egypt I have called my son" "Egypt" is a symbolical word.
- T 9. There are two attitudes toward the Bible: the traditional and the liberal.
- F 10. The Authorized version of the Bible is so called because it was authorized by Charles

(more)

- T 11. The Kingdom of glory was established at the First Advent of Christ.
- ~~X~~ T 12. The Kingdom of heaven will be established when Jesus comes.
- F 13. A panorama is an unchanging picture of events.
- ~~X~~ T 14. The mystical word or number that honeycombs the Commedia is "9."
- T 15. The three realms in Divine Comedy are Hell, Purgatory, and Paradise.
- T 16. The Divine Comedy is written in the Terza rima.
- F 17. The "sevens" are books of the Hebrew Bible.
- T 18. There are three persons in the Blessed Trinity.
- F 19. The Psalms are called hymns because they represent the songs of a shepherd.
- T 20. Jonah was a reluctant missionary.
- F 21. He let his light shine before his pagan comrades on the boat.
- ~~X~~ T 22. He was in the belly of the whale three 24-hour days.

(more)

T 23. His pagan companions on the Naab (boat) revealed more intelligence than Jonah.

T 24 The Song of Songs is a celebrated marriage song.

F 25. A mote refers to a big object.

F 26. A beam refers to a small object.

~~X~~ T 27. The Wine Comedy is called a comedy because it is a funny humorous literary work.

F 28. Dante is prevented from escaping out of the dark forest by four beasts.

T 29. Beatrice sends human understanding in the form of Virgil to lead Dante from hell to be purified in purgatory.

T 30. Before the Mohammedans read their sacred book, they must first make a legal ablution.

T 31. The "Bible" of the Mohame-dans contain some Christiano-

~~X~~ T legends
32. The father of the French essay is Voltaire.

I 33. According to Montaigne after children are born, then begin the trouble and anxiety in bringing them up.

F 34. The "song" of Roland is a song that Roland sings while he is in prison.

I 35. According to Montaigne we often go to great pains to train them in things for which they are unfit.

I 36. Montaigne thinks it best to let the child think for himself.

I 37. Children are compared to the funnels into which teachers pour their knowledge.

F 38. If we call a person a Gargantuan we mean he has a small appetite.

F 39. The three rings represent the three parts of the Trinity.

F 40. The Falcon of Don Rodrigo died a natural death.

X I 41. A quixotic person is a person who has strange peculiar ways.

X I 42. Don Quixote is a satire on the medieval romances of chivalry.

X F 43. Don Quixote represents a unrealistic person.

I 44. His attendant Pancho Sancho Panza a practical man who sees things as they really are.

5

F 45 A ruler who follows the dictates or teachings of Machiavelli in his The Prince is in my opinion an ideal ruler.

PART II COMPLETION.

Directions: Fill in the blanks as accurately as possible.

46. The star that led the wise men was in reality a Angel
47. The killing of infants is called Infanticide
48. The killing of a mother is called Matricide
49. The killing of a father is called PATRICIDE
50. The killing of a sister is called Sororicide
51. The killing of a brother is called Fratericide
52. The killing of a man is called Homicide
53. The killing of the pest is called Pesticide
54. The killing of the insect is called Insecticide
55. In the expression "A voice was heard in Ramah... Rachel weeping for her children" Rachel refers to the mothers who wept when their young babies were killed by Herod.
56. Adventists take the Liberal attitude toward the Bible.

57. The word "beatitude" comes from a Latin word meaning Happy.

58. The gifts that the wise men brought to the Christ child were Gold

59 Frankincense

and 60 Myrrour

61. In the expression while Joseph "thought on these things," these things refers to

62-65 when the Angel appeared to Joseph and told him that Mary was going to have a son

but not to worry because that which she had conceived was of the Holy Spirit, it was this matter here that he thought of.

66. The three great realms that are in the Divine Comedy are

66. Hell

67. Paradise

68 Purgatory.

69. The motto "All hope abandon, ye who enter here," was placed over the gate of Hell.

70-75 Those whom Dante describes in torment under various types of punishment. Describe one type of punishment in detail.

One of the types that DANTE describes is the thief who is sent to Hell and while there he (the thief) can abandon all hope because there he will be tormented by fire and there would not be any ease for his pains.

76. The Bible of the Mohammedans is called Koran

77. Mohammed is to the people of Islam what Christ is to the Christians

78. ~~The phrase work that~~
A proverb is defined as — wise saying with a literal meaning.

8
79 The frame work that holds together ten young people escaping from a PLAGUE is a work called

80 DECAMERON written by Boccaccio

The frame work that holds together pilgrims on the way to a holy shrine is the frame-work of a work called

81 CANTERBURY TALES
written by

82 CHAUSER

The frame work that holds together a wife entertaining her husband with tales unfinished at the end of each night is a work called

84 ARABIAN KNIGHT ENTERTAINMENT.

X The rhyme scheme of the Swine Comedy is called 85-86 Give the rhyme scheme for five stanzas of this form of poetry.

87-88 Dante finds himself lost in the dark forest of hell which represents PURGATORY

89 He is prevented from escaping to the
the hill by Three BEAST

90. In the Divine Comedy Inferno means

Purgatorio means Hell.

and is so called because here is where the wicked in Dante Divine Comedy find themselves.

93. Paradiso means HAV HEAVEN

94. Finish the following -
Beatrice: Dante and Fioretto: Boccaccio
as LAURA: Petrarch

95. The sonnet with the following rime scheme is known as what?
abba abba cdc ded

96 The sonnet with the following rime scheme ~~abba~~ abab bcbe cdcd ee is called the _____ type of sonnet.